

BELLA VISTA FOUNDATION

2008 Grants Paid by Program Area

Organization Name	Grant Description	Payment Amount
EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT
APA Family Support Services	A comprehensive, culturally and linguistically appropriate approach to helping Asian-Pacific-Islander mothers cope with stress through enhanced screenings, home visits and weekly support groups.	$45,000
Avance Incorporated	To support the pilot phase of a program that supports both young children and their parents, preparing both for lifelong learning.	$50,000
Canal Alliance	To recruit and train Latina compañeras (childbirth coaches) who will provide support and information to women in the Canal District.	$32,000
Canal Alliance	Supplemental support for the Compañeras Program.	$5,000
Children's Hospital and Research Center at Oakland	For the Fussy Babies program, providing tiered services for caregivers and their families.	$50,000
CorStone	To pilot the Family Resiliency Program, providing parenting education and support groups.	$25,000
Family & Children Services	For the Early Childhood Services Program, providing education and counseling to support positive family interactions.	$15,000
Family Service Agency of Marin County	To support the Pregnancy and Early Parenting Center to continue home visiting and psycho-educational group services for mothers with postpartum depression.	$50,000
Family Works	For the Nurture Program which provides support groups for mothers/fathers at risk of depression.	$30,000
First 5 San Francisco	To support the launching and integration of Touchpoints into the newly created Parent University at Bayview Hunters Point.	$30,000
Friends Outside in Santa Clara County	For the Steps Ahead program, working with children 0-5 and their caregivers who have been incarcerated or have an immediate family member who is or was in prison.	$28,000
Good Samaritan Family Resource Center, Inc.	For culturally appropriate strategies to prevent maternal depression and for developing a set of tools to better identify mothers at risk of depression.	$60,000
Hand in Hand	To support this parenting education organization as it does more outreach and creates new materials.	$57,761

BELLA VISTA FOUNDATION

2008 Grants Paid by Program Area

Organization Name	Grant Description	Payment Amount
EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT
Healing Yoga Foundation	To provide prenatal yoga therapy classes to homeless and at-risk mothers accessing services at Compass Community Services.	$11,000
Homeless Children's Network	To develop a project to increase homeless families' ability to cope with stress as early as possible in their children's life.	$40,000
Homeless Prenatal Program	To provide case management, prenatal and parenting classes, support groups, and alternative support services to homeless and low-income parents.	$50,000
Jewish Family and Children's Services - Marin	To support the Early Childhood Mental Health program of consultation to Marin County childcare services and Early Head Start home visitors.	$35,000
Jewish Family & Children's Services - Peninsula	To expand the program by one consultant to family child care providers and Early Head Start sites.	$60,000
LifeLong Medical Care	For the second and final year of an evaluation of the Centering Parenting program.	$35,196
Marin Services For Women	To support a comprehensive program of chemical dependency recovery for 60 pregnant and/or parenting women and their children.	$30,000
NIDCAP Federation International	To support the organizational growth of NIDCAP Federation International and ensure that the organization focuses on parental depression in its certification and training programs for newborn intensive care nurseries.	$28,500
Novato Youth Center	Therapy facilities and counseling, and to train ECE providers and families of children 0-3 in parenting techniques to enhance parent-child attachment.	$57,215
Our Second Home	General support for community center.	$10,000
Our Second Home	To provide comprehensive workshops, parent-child playgroups, support groups, and counseling that help low-income families gain techniques to cope with and alleviate stress.	$35,000
Parent Services Project	To support the Mentores program to reduce parental stress among families with children 0-3 in the Canal District.	$36,000
Prenatal to Three Initiative	For Touchpoints support groups and Strengthening Multi-Cultural Families and Communities parenting classes.	$50,000

BELLA VISTA FOUNDATION

2008 Grants Paid by Program Area

Organization Name	Grant Description	Payment Amount
EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT
Puente de la Costa Sur	To support the Madres Project, a program to reduce maternal depression in Latina women through education, culture, peer socialization and group interaction, and one-on-one interventions.	$40,000
Raising A Reader - Marin	Towards to costs of the fifth year of implementing Raising a Reader in Marin County.	$30,000
Raising A Reader – San Francisco	To support Raising A Reader, providing access to this shared books program for children 0-5 in San Francisco.	$40,000
Raising A Reader - Santa Clara	To support Raising a Reader based at this organization serving low income Santa Clara residents.	$40,000
Santa Clara County Partnership for School Readiness	For ongoing support and toward the 2008-09 School Readiness Assessment in Santa Clara County.	$25,000
Somos Mayfair	For general support to facilitate support groups for 50 immigrant mothers.	$25,000
University of California-San Francisco Department of Psychiatry	To match a grant to help create the Supportive Parenting, Resource Integration, and Newborn Guidance Program at San Francisco General Hospital.	$25,000
Vision Literacy	For two eight-week sessions of "Together We Learn" for mothers and young children in the Mayfair district of San Jose.	$28,700
Women's Recovery Association	For the Perinatal Program at Hillside House focused on removing the barriers and stressors for pregnant and/or parenting women related to their mental illness, substance abuse, and history of depression.	$25,000
Youth and Family Enrichment Services	To support the Healthy Homes program, providing services to families with young children who have been exposed to domestic violence.	$25,000
Total EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT		$1,259,372

BELLA VISTA FOUNDATION

2008 Grants Paid by Program Area

Organization Name	Grant Description	Payment Amount
ECOSYSTEM RESTORATION
California Trout	To support the Shasta River Restored Campaign and the Protecting Mt. Shasta's Water Resources Campaign.	$170,000
Central Oregon Landwatch	To commission a study of the true benefits and impacts of destination resorts in Central Oregon and to perform follow-up educational outreach and policy.	$27,000
The Conservation Fund	For a detailed assessment of upslope sediment sources along 70 miles of roads within the upper half of the Big Salmon Creek watershed on the North Coast of California.	$37,000
Deschutes River Conservancy	Support for continuation of the Whychus Creek Streamflow Restoration Project that supports reintroduction of salmon and steelhead in the Upper Deschutes Basin.	$60,000
Environmental Defense	For the project "Enhancing Water Supply and Improving Dam Operations through Improved Upstream Forest Management"	$25,000
Mattole Restoration Council	Support for a long-term plan for restoration of the Mattole River watershed.	$100,000
National Center for Conservation Science & Policy	For implementation of the Klamath Climate Futures Forum that will bring climate change predictions down to the basin scale in the Klamath Basin and incorporate that information into ongoing settlement agreement process.	$40,000
National Forest Foundation	Support for the Deschutes River Collaborative Best Practices Project that will transfer best practices from the Deschutes collaborative group to the John Day Basin.	$15,000
The Nature Conservancy	To support restoration and protection of Independence Lake in the Northern Sierra and its native fish.	$60,000
Oregon Natural Desert Association	Support for restoration of critical habitat for wild steelhead in the Bridge Creek Watershed in the Lower John Day Basin.	$50,000

BELLA VISTA FOUNDATION

2008 Grants Paid by Program Area

Organization Name	Grant Description	Payment Amount
ECOSYSTEM RESTORATION
Oregon Trout	To advance a large-scale historic channel restoration project on the Middle Fork of the John Day River, to conduct community education and outreach, to refine the monitoring and evaluation protocol, and to undertake adaptive management actions.	$100,000
Oregon Water Trust	To begin implementation of streamflow restoration projects in the Upper Mainstem watershed and continue with existing projects on the North Fork, on tributaries of the Upper Mainstem, and on the Middle Fork of the John Day River.	$50,000
Pacific Forest Trust	To capitalize on conservation opportunities in the Klamath-Cascade and Sierra by using PFT's innovative approach of diversifying income to forestland owners, who will be able to receive income from conservation easements, from sustainable forestry, and from carbon emissions reductions.	$50,000
Pacific Rivers Council - Oregon	Support for the Legacy Rivers Project that will establish scientifically defensible and socially acceptable criteria for watershed-level river protection and restoration in the Northwest.	$10,000
Redwood Forest Foundation	Support for community outreach and education around the Usal Redwood Forest on the North Coast of California.	$25,000
Salmon Protection and Watershed Network	To continue habitat restoration, conservation research and monitoring juvenile fish rescue and relocation, sustainable water use, and public education in the Lagunitas Creek watershed.	$86,000
Scott River Water Trust	Support for the Scott River Instream Transfer of Water Rights Demonstration Project, which will use short-term water leasing agreements to increase and protect instream flows.	$47,000
Sustainable Northwest	Support for the collaborative work of Blue Mountains Forest Partners in the Upper John Day Basin.	$40,000
Truckee River Watershed Council	For a pre-restoration plan for Negro Canyon, which is just north of Donner Lake.	$60,000

BELLA VISTA FOUNDATION

2008 Grants Paid by Program Area

Organization Name	Grant Description	Payment Amount
ECOSYSTEM RESTORATION
The Trust for Public Land - Western Region	To implement Phase II of the Sierra Checkerboard Initiative: Forests for the Future.	$125,000
The Upper Sacramento River Exchange	To collaborate with landowners to improve the ecological health of the Squaw Valley Creek drainage and to create a land use and management database specific to the Upper McCloud Watershed.	$50,000
The Wild Salmon Center	To develop a basin-wide vision for a healthy watershed in the John Day that includes conservation measures to meet that vision, and strategies to measure success.	$75,000
Total ECOSYSTEM RESTORATION		$1,302,000
PHILANTHROPIC SUPPORT
Council on Foundations	For annual operating support to provide annual conferences, information and legislative advocacy for all kinds of foundations.	$5,340
Environmental Grantmakers Association*	For a 2008 membership in this national organization, which provides networking opportunities with other environmental grantmakers.	$1,560
The Foundation Center	Operating support for the San Francisco branch of this national organization that provides information about fundraising and foundations to the non-profit world.	$5,000
Grantmakers for Children, Youth & Families	For membership dues.	$1,500
Northern California Grantmakers	For a one-year membership in this organization providing coordination and professional development of Northern California foundation directors and staff.	$3,864
Total PHILANTHROPIC SUPPORT		$17,264
2008 GRANTS TOTAL		$2,578,636

* The entire amount is considered an administrative expense on the 2008 IRS Form 990-PF.